

The Association of Nonprofit and Social Economy Research - Annual Conference -

In Conjunction with the Congress of the Humanities and Social Sciences
Concordia University
Montreal, Quebec, Canada

June 2 to 4, 2010

ANSER (The Association of Nonprofit and Social Economy Research) will hold its annual conference as part of the Congress of the Humanities and Social Sciences at Concordia University, June 2 to 4, 2010. Henry Mintzberg of McGill University will be the keynote speaker, Wednesday, June 2nd, at 4 pm. Anyone with an interest in the conference is invited to attend.

The ANSER conference involves panels of about 200 leading researchers on such themes as:

- The social economy: differing perspectives; civil society and its challenges;
- Nonprofits and charities in a changing world;
- Social enterprises and social entrepreneurship;
- Co-operatives and their challenges;

- Community organizing and community economic development;
- Volunteering and citizenship engagement;
- Changing conceptions of financing;
- Governance and management;
- Public policy and government relations;
- Communication, networking and social marketing;
- Community/university research partnerships.

If you wish to attend the ANSER/ARES 2010 Conference, please register through the website of the Congress of the Humanities and Social Sciences <<http://fedcan.ca/>>. This is a reduction for early registration before March 31, 2010. The Congress website also includes information on accommodation, discounts for travel, and local information.

The fees, posted on the website, are for the Congress registration AND for a one-year membership in ANSER/ARES. In addition to participating in the conference, members in ANSER/ARES receive a newsletter; early access to the Canadian Journal of Nonprofit and Social Economy Research; and the opportunity to apply for ANSER/ARES research awards. When registering, you also have the option of selecting the annual banquet on the evening of June 3, 2010. The banquet speaker is H  l  ne Simard, pr  sidente-directrice g  n  rale of the Conseil de la coop  ration et de la mutualit   du Qu  bec.
